

It shall be their duty, on complaint, to cause by their order the sanitary policeman to have said places cleaned and the nuisance abated, and the said sanitary policeman, or any other person appointed by the board charged with that duty, shall have the authority to enter premises described to be in bad order and inspect and have same cleaned, and the expenses of abating such nuisance shall be recovered from the occupant or owner of said premises by action of debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. That they shall also have power to make regulations and ordinances for the due observance of Sunday.

Quarantine.

SEC. 61. That they may take such measures as they may deem effectual to prevent the entrance into the city or spreading therein of any contagious or infectious disease; may stop, detain and examine for that purpose every person coming from places believed to be infected with such disease; may establish and regulate hospitals within the city or within three miles thereof; may cause any person in the city suspected to be infected with such disease, and whose stay may endanger its health, to be removed to the hospital, if the city have one; if not, where the mayor may direct; may remove from the city or destroy any furniture or other article which shall be suspected of being tainted or infected with contagious or infectious diseases, or of which there shall be reasonable cause to apprehend that they may pass into such a state as to generate and propagate disease; may abate by any reasonable means all nuisances which may be injurious to the public health.

Removal to hospital at expense of patient.

SEC. 62. That in case any person shall be removed to the hospital or to the place directed by the mayor, the corporation may recover before the mayor or any justice of the peace, from said person, the expense of his removal, support, nursing and medical attention, and burial expenses also, in case of death.

Forfeit for resisting removal.

SEC. 63. That if any person shall attempt by force or by threat of violence to prevent the removal to the hospital or place selected by the mayor, as aforesaid, of any person ordered to be conveyed thither, the person so offending shall forfeit and pay to the city one hundred dollars, and moreover be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor.

Power to borrow money.

SEC. 64. That among the powers hereby conferred on the board of aldermen, they may borrow money or create a public debt, only after they have passed an ordinance by a three-fourths vote of the entire board at two separate meetings, submitting the question of creating a debt to a vote of the people, and a majority of the qualified voters have voted in favor thereof. Thirty days' notice shall be given of such election in some newspaper published in Randolph County, at which election those who favor creating the debt shall vote "Approved," and those who oppose it "Not Approved." The board may order a new registration of voters at any and all such elections if they deem it proper to do so.

Notice of election.

Form of ballot.

New registration.